

COMPAIN LECTURES | 2026 SPRING

THE COMPLEXITY OF PAIN AND ITS NORMATIVE IMPLICATIONS

APRIL 22

NOELIA BUENO-GÓMEZ

The pathologisation of suffering and pain

MAY 6

CHRIS MCCARROLL

Chronic pain and unrecognised grief: epistemic barriers to personal and social recognition

MAY 20

ANGELIKA MESSNER

Pain in Chinese perspectives

JUNE 4

FREDRIK SVENAEUS

The importance of enworlded selfhood for understanding chronic-pain-related suffering

JUNE 17

SABRINA CONINX &
NAJA RATHJE LENNERT

Pain and the limits of epistemic injustice: Turning to lived experiences and social structures

